PRODUCT CATALOGUE

Merchant Exporter of Herbal & Natural Wellness Raw Materials

About Us

GlobalNine Worldwide is a merchant export company specializing in herbal and natural wellness products and raw materials. We provide international markets with premium herbal ingredients sourced from India's diverse natural resources. These products are widely used across the nutraceutical, herbal, and wellness industries.

The company represents a second-generation entrepreneurial entry into the export industry. Building on a family business legacy of more than two decades in international trade, primarily in yarn, fabric, and textile products, GlobalNine Worldwide marks a diversification and a new direction into the herbal and natural wellness space. This background brings valuable experience in global trade operations, logistics coordination, and long-term partnerships.

India is widely recognized as one of the key origins for premium natural botanical products. Leveraging this advantage, we work with trusted sourcing partners across the country to ensure consistent quality and reliable supply that meets international standards. Our operations emphasize transparency and efficient coordination in fostering reliable trade relationships with buyers worldwide.
